Objectives and Achievements	In Progress
IDENTIFY P3 OPPORTUNITIES Objective: Encourage agencies to identify State initiatives that are resource or funding constrained, and possible candidates for P3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • P3 Task Force has been refining their charter including P3 project categories of Aspirational, Strategic and Tactical, which will form a solid framework to classify P3 initiatives.
Next Steps (Future Activities)	Challenges (Issues and Risks effecting your effort)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discuss 2009 DRAFT summary Government Performance Review (GPR) report with the P3 Task Force. Use it as a springboard for new ideas in 2018. • Review Dan Madrid's statistical analysis of people who fall into benefits gap, with DHSS Div Director Ray Fitzgerald. • Discuss Rod Ward's idea on potential GEAR alignment on the topic of student funding models. • Create a killer proposal and grant-writing team to maximize funding opportunities for State agencies. • Research other P3 Programs in other states and countries (Foundation research e.g.- Pugh, Kaufmann, Aspen Institute, Brookings) • Review the six (6) other GEAR Task Force team recommendations and discuss in July P3 Task Force meeting • Explore an ideation workshop event on P3 ideas. Include key DBRT, DCSS and State and non-profit representatives. Model the event after the "reinvent Delaware" event. (Scott Malfitano) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Human nature is to take the path of least resistance. This could translate into more focus on tactical projects, instead of aspirational, or even strategic goals. • How do we engage the most innovative and 'change agent' leaders in the major state agencies on P3 initiatives? We cannot effect major change without their involvement and commitment. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Build list of strong change agents in State -Assign a P3 member to each change agent
