(AS OF 05.11.18- CHANGES IN GREEN)

Objectives and Achievements	In Progress
IDENTIFY P3 OPPORTUNITIES Objective: Encourage agencies to identify State initiatives that are resource or funding constrained, and possible candidates for P3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• P3 Task Force has been refining their charter including P3 project categories of Aspirational, Strategic and Tactical, which will form a solid framework to classify P3 initiatives.</li> </ul>
Next Steps (Future Activities)	Challenges (Issues and Risks effecting your effort)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Discuss 2009 DRAFT summary Government Performance Review (GPR) report with the P3 Task Force. Use it as a springboard for new ideas in 2018.</li> <li>• Review Dan Madrid's statistical analysis of people who fall into benefits gap, with DHSS Div Director Ray Fitzgerald.</li> <li>• Discuss Rod Ward's idea on potential GEAR alignment on the topic of student funding models.</li> <li>• Create a killer proposal and grant-writing team to maximize funding opportunities for State agencies.</li> <li>• Research other P3 Programs in other states and countries (Foundation research e.g.- Pugh, Kaufmann, Aspen Institute, Brookings)</li> <li>• Review the six (6) other GEAR Task Force team recommendations and discuss in July P3 Task Force meeting</li> <li>• Explore an ideation workshop event on P3 ideas. Include key DBRT, DCSS and State and non-profit representatives. Model the event after the "reinvent Delaware" event. (Scott Malfitano)</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Human nature is to take the path of least resistance. This could translate into more focus on tactical projects, instead of aspirational, or even strategic goals.</li> <li>• How do we engage the most innovative and 'change agent' leaders in the major state agencies on P3 initiatives? We cannot effect major change without their involvement and commitment.             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Build list of strong change agents in State</li> <li>-Assign a P3 member to each change agent</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
